The Second and Last Week of the Third Anniversary Sale

will begin its career with an unbroken chain of broken records to its credit, and every person connected with the store realizes that if it is to equal the brilliant doings of the first six days, offerings of the most remarkable sort will be none too strong.

Chance has favored us, by placing several very important deals within our reach, as you will see further on. To these we add an array of bargains of our own creation, almost as wonderful, making an altogether unparalleled list of special attractions to begin the week with.

A careful perusal of the following will, therefore, prove most profitable reading:

Millinery Opening

Once every season we announce a formal Millinery Opening—and welcome news it is for the style lovers of New York—for were they not always the event of the year—the openings that outshined and overshadowed all the contemporaneous millinery exhibits?

THIS FALL THE OPENING TAKES PLACE
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday,
SEPTEMBER 18th to 20th.

It will be a stupendous showing—a commanding exhibit of new ideas in Fall Hats, embracing the masterpieces of Europe's foremost modistes as well as the clever productions of our own American artists. And you will find that America will have no cause to blush—since our home talent has succeeded in creating many most exquisite models which even the past masters of the art in France would be proud to acknowledge as their own.

As to prices—we shan't say much this time—our reputation for reasonably low prices on New York's best millinery is too well established to require it.

Children's Headwear will be a strong feature of the showing. More styles to choose from and at lower prices than at any other store in New York. In fact, as far as we can learn we have the only representative assortment of Children's headwear in the city.

AS FEATHERS PROMISE TO BE ALL THE RAGE THIS FALL, we have prepared a very great stock of them—Birds' Wings, Quills, Gulls, Aigrettes, Paradise, Fancy and Ostrich Feathers—all of which we offer at far lower prices than other stores.

3,000 Pure Silk Umbrellas, at each

79c., 99c. and 1.29.

As stated in Friday's papers, these goods are slightly damaged, but not enough to be noticeable or to impair their usefulness or appearance; certainly not enough to warrant the very low prices at which we are offering them. These umbrellas are covered with strictly pure silks. In black and colors, and some of them have handsome woven borders. All are made on Harvey close rolling rods, in the 26-inch size, mounted with a grand variety of fine handles for men and women, such as ivory, pearl, Dresden, natural woods, ebony, gold silver and jade. These goods would cost you from $1.75 to $5 at any other time and place. We bought them at a low price for spot cash, however, and will sell them to you in the same way: 3 special lots at three special prices, as follows:
